The Autry Museum of the American West Presents
Sacred Path x the Autry Pow Wow 2026

November 7, 2026

(October ??, 2026—Los Angeles, CA) Join the Autry and community partner Sacred Paths Indigenous Wellness Center on Saturday, November 7, for a full-day celebration of Native culture with traditional powwow dancing, food, and vendors! Pow Wow attendees will enjoy traditional dancing and songs led by Northern- and Southern-style drummers and singers, plus Indian tacos and traditional fry bread from Wildhorse Native Foods. Vendors will be on-site selling traditional and contemporary Native arts and crafts. Learn history and culture from Native community information booths and experience diverse Native languages, customs, and dances. The event is completely FREE and open to the public.

About Sacred Path:
The Autry is pleased to announce a new partnership with Sacred Path Indigenous Wellness Center. Sacred Path is a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving urban Native communities, offering a variety of programs and services designed to promote cultural connection, community engagement, and overall well-being. For more information, please visit sacredpath.org.

About the Autry Museum of the American West:
The Autry Museum of the American West is dedicated to exploring and sharing the stories, experiences, and perceptions of the diverse peoples of the American West, connecting the past to the present to inspire our shared future. The museum presents a wide range of exhibitions and public programs—including lectures, film, theatre, festivals, family events, and music—in addition to scholarship, research, and educational outreach. The Autry's holdings comprise more than 600,000 artworks and cultural objects, including one of the largest and most significant collections of Native American materials in the United States. For more information, please visit https://theautry.org.

The Autry Museum of the American West acknowledges the Gabrielino/Tongva peoples as the traditional land caretakers of Tovaangar (the Los Angeles Basin and So. Channel Islands). We recognize that the Autry Museum and its campuses are located on the traditional lands of Gabrielino/Tongva peoples, and we pay our respects to the Honuukvetam (Ancestors), ‘Ahiihirom (Elders), and ‘Eyoohiinkem (our relatives/relations) past, present, and emerging.
