

Women of the West Webinar

Student Response Sheet

During the webinar, take notes and answer the questions below or on a separate piece of paper.

ABSENT FROM HISTORY

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #1: Why do you think the American West was portrayed, shown, or written about without women?

WOMEN CREATORS

Tammy Garcia

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #2: What does Tammy Garcia's story and artwork reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she has created, who she represents and how.

Patsy Montana

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #3: What does Patsy Montana's story and artwork reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she has created, who she represents and how.

WOMEN CREATORS (continued)

Carolyn Mazloomi

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #4: What does Carolyn Mazloomi's story and artwork reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she has created, who she represents and how.

WOMEN DECISION MAKERS

Modesta Avila

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #5: What does Modesta Avila's story reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she did, who she represents and how.

Addie Orr

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #6: What does Addie Orr's story reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she did, who she represents and how.

WOMEN DECISION MAKERS (continued)

Patsy Mink

Notes:

Stop & Note: → Question #7: What does Patsy Mink's story reveal about women in the American West? Think about what she did, who she represents and how.

CONCLUSION

Final thoughts:

Stop & Note: → Question #8: How have women contributed to the American West over time?

- Think about the women in the presentation
- Think about women in your own life who live in the American West