

Archives and Archivists

Part III: Be an Archivist Activity

Now it's your turn to be an archivist! Look closely at the front and back of this photograph and fill out the table that follows.

Carte de visite, Blessing and Brother. (Museum Purchase, Autry Museum; 91.177.1)

Archives and Archivists

BE AN ARCHIVIST
FINDING CLUES IN THE EVIDENCE What do you see? Who do you think is in the photograph? If there are words, what do they say? (Printed and handwritten) Where do you think this picture was taken?
ANALYZING THE EVIDENCE What do you think is the relationship between the woman and the baby? What makes you say that? Why do you think they took this photo?
ASKING QUESTIONS ABOUT THE EVIDENCE What questions do you still have about the photograph?
FINDING THE STORY IN ARCHIVES What do you think is the story in this photograph? Use your evidence, analysis, and questions and summarize what you think this photograph is about.

Find more about the photograph here: Who Is This Woman?: <https://vimeo.com/518774231>