How Do You Know Something Is a Sculpture?

PART 1 - Read about and look at a Sculpture.

Sculptures are made by artists. The artist is Mehl Lawson.

Sculptures are made out of materials. This is made of bronze, a metal like a penny.

Sculptures are three-dimensional (3D). You can see it from all sides.

Sculptures are full of shapes. There is a circle on his hat and rectangle on his chaps (leg coverings).

Sculptures tell stories about:

- animals
- people
- places
- plants
- things

This sculpture tells the story of a cowboy on a windy day.

The story shows movement. The wind is blowing his coat.

The story shows feelings. He is worried the wind might blow his hat off.
PART 2 – Match the sculpture to its description. Draw a line from the sculpture to its description.
